GREENVILLE WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN SHETUCKET RIVER

The body of Mrs. Mary Kuma, 40, who disappeared from her home in the basement at 483 North Main street, on the night of Friday, March 21, was found Sunday morning back of the Greenville dam in the Shetucket river. It was lodged and held down under water among some branches and limbs of trees in a sluiceway near the Norwich Water Power Co. canal.

Discovery of the body was made by a man who was fishing in the canal and was able to see the woman's clothing under the water which was not as deep as usual because the canal had been drawn up to make some repairs at the Shetucket mill.

Two young fellows named Gaucher and Mulkin waded out and drew the body ashore, where it was met by Dr. C. G. Gidley, medical examiner, who pronounced it a case of suicide by drowning. She and Burke were allowed to take charge of the body.

Mrs. Kuma, who was a widow, with three children at home and a boy in the army, was missing from her home on the morning of Saturday, March 26, when her son James awoke and looked for his mother. She had retired the night before at the usual hour, just before 10 o'clock, and the other two children, Mary 13, and Annie 7, spending the night at a friend's house. The children waited all day Saturday for their mother to appear and when she had not come home by night, the boy James reported the case to the police.

As the Shetucket river runs in the rear of the house and the woman had been dependent at times since the death of her husband about two years ago, the supposition had been that she had drowned herself in the river. The first selection has taken charge of the children since their mother disappeared, finding a place where she can work on a farm, and a boarding place for the two girls in another family.

GIVEN BAD BEATING ON ROAD AT TANTIC

Tony Powak of Tantic, with his face covered with blood, was taken to his home and around his eyes, ears and cheeks, was seen staggering in the road at Tantic by Dr. P. G. Gidley, medical examiner, who pronounced it a case of suicide by drowning. She and Burke were allowed to take charge of the body.

Defies Old Age By Using Howard's Buttermilk Cream To Beautify Her Complexion.

Tells Druggists Not To Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Quickly Shows a Decided Improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost by magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that while it turns the dull, lifeless, most useless complexion into radiant beauty and makes the skin soft, smooth, and white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shine or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, with freckles, with lines around the mouth, with wind or sunburn, or with any of the other troubles which quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. If you cannot obtain locally, send 10 cents (either by check or money order) for a package of both Cream and Soap. Howard Bros. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Father Mooney is to leave the parish, he rejoices that he has new promotion to a pastorate, to which new duty he goes with renewed experience resulting from that training which is such an important factor in the progress and success of the church of which he is a worthy exponent. During Sunday scores of Norwich parishioners called at the rectory to congratulate Father Mooney, while expressing personal regret that St. Patrick's was to lose such a hard-working assistant.

The exact date when Father Mooney will leave Norwich, also the name of his successor, will be announced by Bishop Norcross later.

RED CROSS APPEAL FOR THE FLOOD SUFFERERS

The Norwich Red Cross chapter has received the following appeal from the American Red Cross on behalf of the sufferers from floods in the Mississippi valley:

Floods in the valleys of the Illinois, Ohio, and Mississippi rivers have caused death, great loss of property, and thousands of families to be without shelter, food or proper clothing. Thirty-one Red Cross homes are being fed by the Red Cross in the state of Mississippi alone. The Red Cross has quickly organized relief work with the help of local committees at many places in Illinois and other Mississippi river states of Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana. The first needs have been met by national headquarters' appropriations of approximately one hundred thousand dollars.

There is great work to be done until the stricken people have been helped. All can be reestablished in some life. At least five hundred thousand dollars will be required by the Red Cross. There should be generous assistance for these straggling communities and the health and comfort of destitute men, women and children should have every possible aid.

Contributions may be made for use at any designated place, or in any specific territory, or for distribution according to the local necessities for the relief of the victims of the national organization.

Chapter officers will report and forward the money which they collect to the respective division offices.

(Signed) JOHN BARTON PAYNE, Chairman.

The following letter relative to the Mississippi valley floods has been received by the chairman of the central committee, Mrs. Frederick Harding:

John Barton Payne, Chairman, Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

My dear Judge Payne: I have observed with much interest and pleasure the prompt and effective work which the Red Cross is doing for the relief of the victims of the national organization.

Chapter officers will report and forward the money which they collect to the respective division offices.

(Signed) WARREN G. HARDING.

Contributions may be sent to Frederick W. Lester, treasurer, Norwich Chapter, American Red Cross, 45 Central building, Norwich, and will be forwarded immediately to the national organization.

POETRY

THE HERMIT THRUSH.

Sweet singer, in the high and holy place
Of this dimly cathedral of the hills
With reverent brow and uplifted face
I wait the cup thy melody distills.

What thrilling well of liquid music
Within thy breast to quicken my slow
What harmonies chords are hid beneath
Thy wings.

Thou art the soul is lifted by thy bliss
Permeate the waste mysterious desire
Hath it not been both thy lips and Thine as one?

For now—It burns a single flame of fire
Drooping beneath the branches from the Setting sun!

And as thou singest, in the voice is mine
Each note, a thought; each thought a Silent prayer.

Of joy, of peace, of ecstasy divine
Poured forth upon the fragrant woodland air!

And I, who stand apart, am not alone
Here, in these great cathedral aisles
Unholy, thou hast opened Heaven unclosed.

And through thy song I have communed
With God—
—August Wilbur Bomberger, in Indianapolis News.

FREEDOM FOR THE MIND.

High walls and huge the body may constrain
And iron gates obstruct the prisoner's gaze.

Yet when the body has no more to do
And the mind is free to roam
No chains can bind it, and no cell infernal.

Softer than light, it flows from pole to pole,
And, as it flows, from earth to heaven, it glows.

It leaps, from mountain to mountain—
from
It wanders, seeking heavenly fountains,
It flows.

It visits, to hear the friendly tale
Or in sweet converse to pass the joyous hour.

It is, before the sun, roaming afar,
And, in its watches, wears every star.
—William Lloyd Garrison.
